

Brushstrokes Community Project

Community Development Worker

35 Hours per week

Fixed term until Sep 2025 (4 years)

Brushstrokes, Smethwick

SCP 24-27 (£23,024.00 – £25,320.00 pro rata)

Brushstrokes is an award-winning project in partnership with Father Hudson's Care, The Infant Jesus Sisters and the parish of St Philip Neri, Smethwick. The project is well established with a proven track record in supporting refugees, asylum seekers and migrants in Sandwell and surrounding areas.

We require a Community Development Worker to develop and coordinate community involvement and activities. Funding by the National Lottery, you will facilitate the ongoing development of Brushstrokes Service User Group enabling a strong migrant voice to inform our work and engage with commissioners. You will develop and coordinate a range of community and social activities and you will support the development of new and existing local refugee and migrant community organisations and groups.

With experience of working with the client group, community development and promoting community participation, you will have excellent communication and networking skills, good IT skills and have an organised approach. You will have the ability to work with people from differing social and cultural backgrounds, be flexible and committed to our ethos of welcoming the stranger.

We are looking for flexibility to undertake evening and weekend work.
